Experience Southern Vermont

Our region is rich with storied locations and exciting activities, from covered bridges and colonial-era farms to kayaking and cycling. The long, warm days of summer are matched only by the spectacular foliage and cool evenings of fall.

No matter what your group's special interest may be, the Gray Ghost will work with you to craft an itinerary that's just right.

About the Inn

Carina Hellström has owned and operated The Gray Ghost since 2000 and quickly built a reputation for excellence in hosting and entertaining large groups. With 26 rooms and a 3-bedroom suite, the Inn is an ideal destination for motorcoach tours.

A small staff work with Carina to elevate the Inn's comfortable, familiar atmosphere every day. Nicole and Melissa manage housekeeping, our chef prepares all in-house meals, and PJ takes care of regular maintenance. Carina's three daughters act as hosts when they're not busy with school and sports, and her two black Labradors provide affection to all those who visit without pets of their own.

Tour Packages

Your package price includes all rooms and meals plus a wine and cheese reception on arrival, all attractions, evening entertainment, baggage care, taxes and gratuities, and of course our attentive, enthusiastic service.

Sample Itinerary

Day One: Arrival

After settling in to the comfort of their rooms, guests gather in the lounge for wine and cheese before a home-cooked, three-course dinner.

Day Two: Southern Vermont Tour

Guests rise for a hot breakfast with locally produced maple syrup, sausage, and bacon. The day's tour begins at Hildene, the former estate of Robert Todd Lincoln. A picnic lunch follows a tour of the house and gardens. The group continues on to visit Sunbeam, one of the finest specimens of restored Pullman Palace railroad cars. Before heading back to the Inn for dinner, the group stops at the Vermont Country Store in Weston to peruse a selection of culinary treats, artisan crafts, and cozy Vermont apparel.

Day Three: Vermont Farms

The day's adventure starts at Adams' Family Farm after breakfast, where group enjoys a wagon-ride tour of this 140-year-old working farm. There is plenty to learn, from the Adams family history to butchering and maple syrup making. After lunch and a quick refresh at the Inn, equine-lovers head to visit the Friesians of Majesty in Townsend. Meet these beautiful animals with a tour of the barn, take in their spectacular show skills, and enjoy a second carriage ride.

Day Four: Southern Vermont Vacation

The group sets out after a final, delicious breakfast to explore the Bennington Museum and The Old First Church, built in 1762. After a relaxing picnic lunch in the church barn, it's off to the Bennington Battle Monument to take a ride up to the 200 ft. Viewpoint. For the sweetest of departures, the group heads to the Chocolatorium in Arlington to learn about the art of chocolaterie and even make their own candy bars.

FAQ's

And for the more adventurous traveler?

Your visit can also include Zipline, whitewater rafting, Alpine Slides, hikes, kayaking, cycling, and much more. Contact Carina to make your perfect plans.

Got bridges?

Yes – there's a covered bridge on the way to practically every area attraction.

Where's the ghost?

Sorry to disappoint - the "gray ghost" is a style of fishing lure! If you're in for a good spook, you can always incorporate a Murder Mystery dinner to your trip.
